An Association of Professionals, registered under the Laws of Manitoba

LIMITATION TO THE USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

MAHE records the information collected on the membership application/renewal forms to maintain accurate records in compliance with the Professional Home Economists Act. Information is stored in an electronic database and may be used to:

- conduct the regular business of the Association;
- provide IFHE necessary membership information for those who join;
- post an online membership directory in the Members Only portion of the MAHE website (accessed by password and available only to current members) which includes the member's name, designation, preferred mailing address, business name, business title, primary phone number, email address, education and area of practice; and
- provide an online members list in the public section of the MAHE website which would include only the member's name, general location, professional designation, organization, and public social media (website, blog, Twitter). Members may view and update this public information to include or exclude any of this information by logging in to the Members Only portion of the MAHE website and accessing the Public Info tab in their member profile.

If you choose to limit the Association's use and disclosure of your personal information, simply complete the form below. You may change your consent at any time by providing written notification to MAHE.

Check here if you DO NOT want MAHE to include your name and business name on a publicly accessible member list on the MAHE website.

You do not need to complete this form if you consent to your name and details being used for the purposes listed above.
